Despite the productive development, Kuala Lumpur (KL) has drawn admiring glances on a fine balance of multi-story buildings, sky scrapers and historical sites amidst lush greenery. Among the highlights of the tour are: -

- ❖ National Monument
The tallest sculptures in the world, measuring at 15.54m high, built to the country's fallen heroes.
- ❖ King's Palace
A photo stop of the official residence of His Majesty, the Yang Di Pertuan Agong, the King of Malaysia.
- ❖ National Museum
Explore the traditions and customs shaped by the various races in the country, in this unique building made of Malay architecture.
- ❖ National Mosque
Be amazed by this uniquely designed mosque with traditional Islamic art, calligraphy, ornament and its sleek and stylish 73 meter high minarets.
- ❖ Sultan Abdul Samad Building
Built in 1897 for important government departments, the predominantly Moorish appearance of the building suitably reflects the cultural background of Malaysia.
- ❖ The Petronas Twin Towers
Stop for a photo shoot of the world's tallest twin towers.
